Congratulations to Victoria Kirkham

The Modern Language Association of America has announced that Victoria Kirkham, Professor of Italian at the Univ. of Pennsylvania and past president of the American Boccaccio Association, will receive this year's Howard R. Marrero Prize and Aldo and Jeanne Scaglione Prize for Italian Literary Studies for her book, Fabulous Vernacular: Boccaccio's Filocolo and the Art of Medieval Fiction, published by the Univ. of Michigan Press. Our congratulations to Prof. Kirkham on this wonderful and much-deserved recognition.

MLA Volume Published

The MLA has published Approaches to Teaching Boccaccio's Decameron, edited by James McGregor. The volume includes essays by many noteworthy Boccaccists and members of the Association, including Janet Smarr, Robert Hollander, Aldo Scaglione, Steven Grossvogel, Victoria Kirkham, and McGregor himself. It will be available at the MLA convention; MLA members will receive literature about how to purchase the book at the discount. Please remember to have your library order a copy!

Recent Conference Papers

American Association of Teachers of Italian, Boston, MA, November 16-19, 2000

"The Power of Play in the Novella of the Three Rings (Decameron I, 3)," Franco Masciandaro, Univ. of Connecticut, Storrs

"Dalla parola all'immagine: cinema, scrittura, e corpo nel Decameron e nel suo adattamento cinematografico di Pier Paolo Pasolini," Patrizia La Trecchia, Univ. of Pennsylvania

Members Report Activities

Victoria Kirkham has published "L'immagine del Boccaccio nella memoria tardo-gotica e rinascimentale," in Boccaccio visualizzato, ed. Vittore Branca, 3 vols. (Torino: Einaudi, 1999). She also reports that on November 21, 1999, Il sole 24 ore announced publication of the Boccaccio visualizzato volume and a new illustrated edition of the Decameron. The announcement included a large reproduction of the Novella di Nastagio degli Onesti by Botticelli and workshop, owned by the Prado.

Dues Reminder

If you have not yet paid your annual dues ($5 regular member/$15 sustaining member), please send your check or money order (Canadian members: US funds, please), together with your name and mailing address, to the Editor. We've provided our convenient form, which enables you to pay for one year ($5) or two ($10).

Also, please remember to check your address label: you'll see a date in the upper right-hand corner. That's the expiration date of your Boccaccio Association membership. We hope this feature will help you keep track of when your dues are due.
